JOINT MOTION TO CONTINUE SENTENCING

The parties hereby respectfully move this Court to continue the Sentencing in this matter from the currently scheduled date of April 14, 2006, to a date convenient to the Court. The parties propose a date during the week of July 17, 2006. As reasons therefore, the parties state that additional time is required to resolve issues previously made known to the Court. The parties further state that the U.S. Probation Department also agrees that additional time is appropriate in this case. The parties further state that allowance of this motion is in the best interests of justice.

Respectfully submitted,

MICHAEL J. SULLIVAN
United States Attorney
